

Participation rules DoKomi Contests

Illustration: Magdalena Proszowska

§1 Prerequisites for attending

- Deadline for submission is the 22st of April 2018 at 11:59 p.m. Submissions after this date can not be allowed.
- Only for the art contest: Your picture and all parts of it have to be designed by yourself. Plagiarism, known as fanarts, are not allowed. Excepted are all mascots of the DoKomi. They can be used freely.
- The forms for participation have to be filled out true. Only full particulars can be regarded.
- You can submit several works, but only one work per person can win a prize.

§2 Presentation of submitted works

- Submitted works can be printed and shown at the DoKomi or can be published at the DoKomi website. We will use the full names of the persons who submit the works!
- Submissions of the winners will be shown at the stage program during the prize-giving.

§3 Winners and prizes

- Winners will be announced for the first time during the prize-giving at the convention.
- Participants who win and are present during the prize-giving can pick up their prizes locally.
- If the winner is not present he or she can send a delegate who can pick up the prize.
- The winner or delegate has to show a photo ID of himself in order to receive the prize.
- If nobody is present to pick up the prize, it will be posted to the winner after the con. Posting can take a few weeks because of organisational reasons.

By submitting a work you agree with all points above! These rules only apply for the contest during the DoKomi 2018.

Good luck!

Contact and questions via: wettbewerb@dokomi.de